The Kentucky Historical Society and the Kentucky
Genealogical Society present

Second Saturday Family-History Workshop
"How to Plan a Research Trip" and "Researching at the National Archives"

Saturday, May 9, 2009

10:30 a.m. - 1:30 p.m.

Thomas D. Clark Center for Kentucky History

Doing your homework in advance of a research trip can save time, money, and years of frustration. In the morning session, Betty Darnell will offer advice on preparatory tactics and strategies that will greatly increase your chances of success once you arrive at your destination. In the afternoon, Phyllis Spiker will outline what to expect when researching at our nation's premier public document repository.

Registration before noon on Friday, May 8, is required. Workshop participation is complimentary. A light lunch is available for registrants only from 11:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. for $6, payable at the door. For more information or to register, call 502-564-1792, ext. 4460, or email refdesk@ky.gov.

Presentation by KTIG

Following the close of each family-history workshop, the Kentucky Technology in Genealogy Users Group (KTIG) offers a free program to help support family-history researchers' use and understanding of technology as it applies to genealogy. All interested persons are invited to participate in the monthly program at 1:45 p.m.

Note: Be advised that both Ann Street and Broadway will be closed until 10 a.m. on Saturday, May 9. If you plan to arrive at the Center for Kentucky History before 10 a.m., you may use the parking lot located on the corner of Clinton and High Streets.
