Second Saturday

October 11: Online Databases for
Genealogy Research” and “LDS
Records for Genealogy Research”

The Kentucky Historical Society and the Kentucky
Genealogical Society present

Second Saturday Family History Workshop
“Online Databases for Genealogy Research” and “LDS
Records for Genealogy Research”

Saturday, October 11, 2008

10:30 a.m. - 1:30 p.m.

Thomas D. Clark Center for Kentucky History
100 West Broadway
Frankfort, KY 40601

Family historians can miss valuable information by not knowing about all the different kinds of information that a resource provides. In the morning program, Louisville genealogist Ivan Baugh will explain the variety of databases available online to researchers and highlight the benefits of each. In the afternoon, Valerie Edgeworth of KDLA will discuss the kinds of information that can be found in LDS records.

Registration before noon on Friday, October 10, is required. Workshop participation is complimentary. A light lunch is available for registrants only from 11:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. for $6, payable at the door. For more information or to register, call 502-564-1792, ext. 4460, or email Refdesk@ky.gov.

Monthly Bonus Presentation by KTIG – “Evaluating the Reliability of Information from the Internet”

The Kentucky Technology in Genealogy Users Group (KTIG) meets monthly at 2:00 p.m. following the close of each “Second Saturday” Family History Workshop at the Thomas D. Clark Center for Kentucky History in Frankfort. Each meeting features a program designed to help support family-history researchers’ use and understanding of technology as it applies to genealogy. There is no charge to attend the KTIG program, and all interested persons are invited to participate.

The Kentucky Historical Society is an agency of the Kentucky Tourism, Arts and Heritage Cabinet.
