

The Kentucky Historical Society and the Kentucky Genealogical Society present

Second Saturday Family-History Workshop
"Genealogy Basics, Parts 1 and 2"

Saturday, Sept. 12, 2009
10:30 a.m. - 1:30 p.m.

Thomas D. Clark Center for Kentucky History

Get suggestions about how to start the process of researching and documenting family history from Jackie Couture of Eastern Kentucky University Archives. During the morning presentation, Couture will describe proper techniques for basic research, and in the afternoon she will offer information on resources, repositories and helpful tips.

Registration is required by noon on Friday, Sept. 11. Workshop participation is complimentary. A light lunch is available for registrants only from 11:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. for $6, payable at the door. For more information or to register, contact the reference desk at 502-564-1792, ext. 4460, or RefDesk@ky.gov.

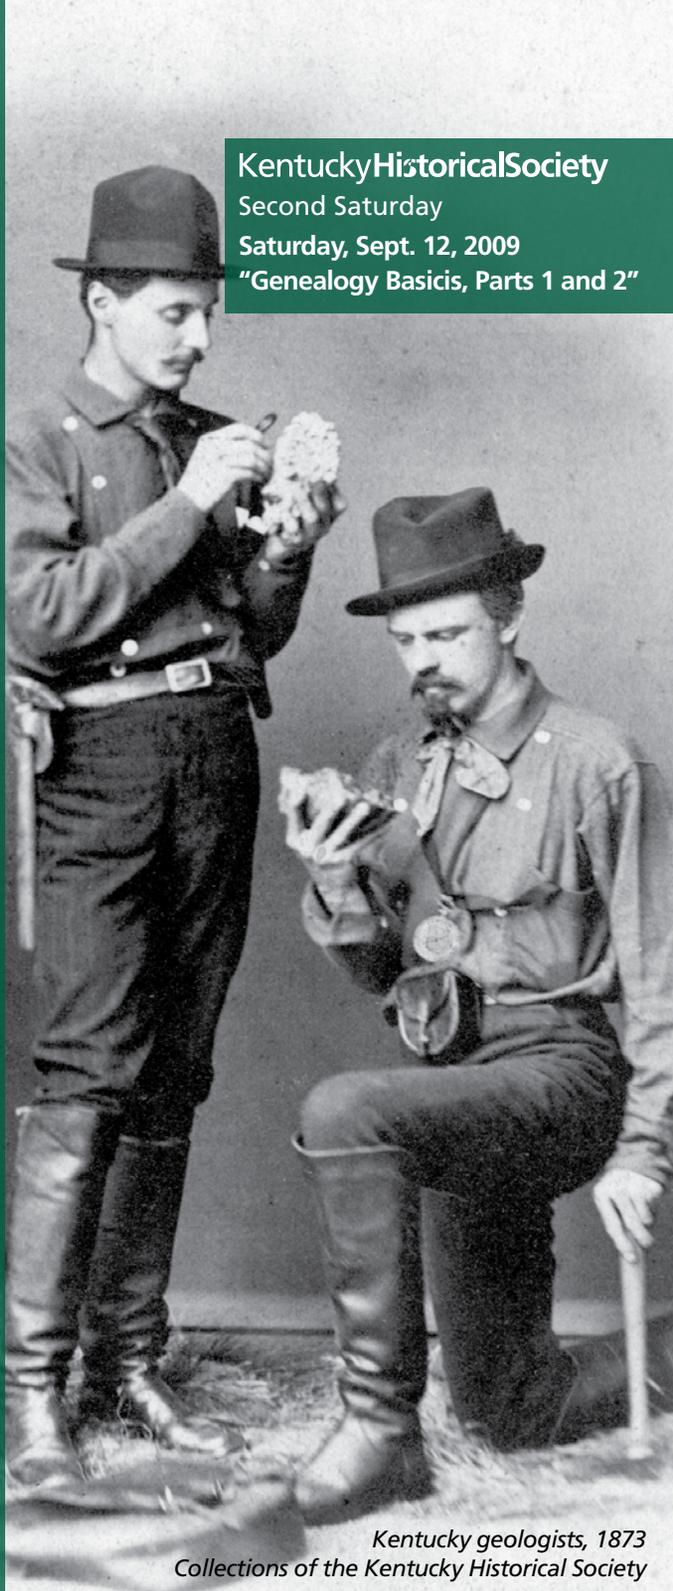

Presentation by KTIG

Following the close of each family-history workshop at 1:45 p.m., the Kentucky Technology in Genealogy Users Group (KTIG) offers a free program to help support family-history researchers' use and understanding of technology as it applies to genealogy. The September program will feature a quick overview of the key internet offerings for researching your family history.

The Kentucky Historical Society is an agency of the Kentucky Tourism, Arts and Heritage Cabinet.
