Fellowship applications are due at KHS by September 1, 2016, with grantees to be notified by October 15, 2016. Grantees will be required to provide their Social Security numbers for tax purposes. Because of state regulations, Kentucky state employees are not eligible for these fellowships. (Kentucky public school teachers and state university employees are eligible, however.) Fellowship recipients from the previous year are not eligible for fellowships in the same category.

Applications should be mailed electronically to Amanda Higgins, Amanda.Higgins@ky.gov or posted to Kentucky Historical Society, 100 West Broadway, Frankfort, KY 40601-1931. If you have any questions, please contact her at the above email address or 502-564-1792, ext. 4440.

Applicants must submit a curriculum vitae or resume and prospectus. Your prospectus should describe your current project and its significance, emphasizing how it would benefit from research at KHS. Include a project overview, theoretical perspectives, sources, methods, work completed to date, necessity of KHS collections research, and a bibliography.

In this description make sure to cover the following points:

- What is the end-product of your project? What aspects of the Churchill Weavers collection and other KHS collections or resources contribute to your project? How so?
- What collections essential for your project are NOT at KHS?
- How much time do you intend to spend at KHS?
- What is the estimated timetable for your project?

Graduate and undergraduate students must include two letters of recommendation from faculty members familiar with their work and with the project being proposed. Independent scholars who do not have a curriculum vitae should provide a statement about their experience with historical research and publishing. Applicants are strongly encouraged to contact Louise Jones, louise.jones@ky.gov or 502-564-1792, ext. 4407, well in advance to become oriented with the Churchill Weavers business records and manuscript collection; applicants interested in the object collection should contact Deborah Van Horn, Deborah.vanhorn@ky.gov or 502-564-1792, ext. 4418. More information, including links to online catalogs with collection materials, is at history.ky.gov/portfolio/churchill-weavers-collection/
