

2018 Kentucky History Award Recipients

Service/Special Awards

- Museum of the American Printing House for the Blind | Thomas D. Clark Award of Excellence
- Karl Lietzenmayer, Covington | Lifetime Dedication to History
- Glen Conner, Scottsville | Award of Distinction
- Bill Cooke, International Museum of the Horse | Frank R. Levstik Award for Professional Service
- Kentucky Folklife Program/Kentucky Museum, Bowling Green | Community Impact Award

Education Awards

- International Museum of the Horse | “Black Horsemen of the Kentucky Turf” exhibit
- Kentucky Society Daughters of the American Revolution/Duncan Tavern | “First Annual Kentucky Heritage Preservation Symposium”
- Historic Paris-Bourbon County/Hopewell Museum | “The Great War: Kentucky and Beyond” exhibit
- Behringer-Crawford Museum | “Korea: The Forgotten War” exhibit

Publication Awards

- Clay County Historical Society | “The Clay We Were: A Visual Journey”
- Shelby County Historical Society | “Salute to the Past: The Shaping of Shelby County, Kentucky”
- Carol Boggess | “James Still: A Life”
- Tom Jones | “On a Burning Deck: Return to Akron,” Vols. 1&2