Call for Proposals

2020 Kentucky History Education Conference
“Communication in History”

Conference Date: Thursday, July 16, 2020
Proposal Due Date: April 15, 2020
Location: Thomas D. Clark Center for Kentucky History in Frankfort

Do you have an innovative classroom practice or engaging social studies topic to share with educators? If so, consider joining like-minded teachers as a presenter at the Kentucky History Education Conference (KHEC). Each summer, KHEC gathers K-12 educators from across the state for a daylong conference to explore content, obtain resources, hear from scholars and educators, and learn about other educator’s proven classroom strategies. Whether you are a new teacher looking to brainstorm with peers or a veteran educator with years of experience, join us at KHEC 2020!

As you create a session proposal, keep in mind the following suggestions, given by recent KHEC attendees:
- Provide ideas or materials that colleagues can immediately implement in the classroom
- Demonstrate hands-on activities and/or easy tech tools
- Look at 20th century historical topics
- Share strategies that relate to new state social studies standards!
- Focus on PBL, DBQ, or other teaching styles
- Address social studies threads such as geography, economics, or civics or integrate history with other subjects such as language arts, science, the arts

The deadline for proposals is April 15, 2020. Selected presenters will be notified by April 30, 2020.

Note that accepted presenters will have their conference fee waived, and breakfast and lunch provided. Presenters are responsible for mileage, hotel and all other travel expenses.

Please feel free to share this call for proposals to anyone you know that may be interested. If you have any questions, please don’t hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,
